BURKE MOUNTAIN

EXCLUSIVE PREVIEW PACKAGE

A collection of 107 Scandinavian-inspired townhomes on Burke Mountain.

Go North and Prosper.

Surrounded by nature and a close community, Culmena by Tangerine Developments is thoughtfully planted on Coquitlam's Burke Mountain. These spacious 3 and 4 bedroom townhomes are inspired by Scandinavian design — meaning, they're built for comfort and to make every inch count. Pitched rooflines and clad exteriors create the look of a modern mountain village, and indoor spaces connect with the outdoors to circulate that fresh mountain air. Grow alongside nature and community — there's no better way.

An Airborne Lifestyle.

Your lifestyle is heightened in an amenity building with over 1,500 square feet of inspired spaces — for family, friends, or just you.

Level 1

Downstairs, you'll share conversations in the lounge, focus in the co-work space, compete at billiards, prep a feast in the kitchen, or celebrate around the harvest table.

Gather for movies, the big game, and potluck meals.

Level 2

The fitness centre at Culmena is a room with a view, with space set aside for yoga and Pilates, heavy weights, mirrors for good form, and high design in every detail. Your regimen just got a lot more inviting.

Begin a movement. Begin your day. Do it in style.

Open. Bright. Ready for Life.

Culmena was built for an easy flow from one moment to the next, with lofty 9' ceilings, warm wide-plank floors, and perfect details in between. Strategic storage solutions, progressive extras like the fireplace, and modern tech are woven in. This is life in flow state.

Culmena kitchens are like a breath of fresh air. The social centrepiece is the island, with its elegant waterfall edge. Modern cabinetry accents the space. A standout appliance package from Fisher and Paykel brings out your culinary calling. It's all in very good taste.

A Nourishing Space.

Wellness at Home.

Your daily ablutions just stepped up. A frameless glass shower pours from an elaborate shower system. Porcelain tiles and polished quartz countertops elevate the moment. And flat-panel cabinetry and modern millwork keep it clear and tidy for all your rituals.

Sweet Alpine Slumber.

Every room in every Culmena home has a quiet serenity, but the bedroom is arguably the most healing space in the house. Warm textures, natural light (in the morning), and warm tones throughout. Sleep well. Wake up ready.

Whole Home. Full Living.

The homes at Culmena are breezy, full of light, and move easily from one space to the next. Clean open floorplans, woodgrain details and flooring, balconies and backyards, and modern touches like advanced wiring for EV charging in the garage: these Scandi-inspired homes offer a full life, top to bottom.

- Nestled in the heart of Coquitlam's Burke Mountain, Culmena is a collection of 107 Scandinavian-inspired townhomes envisioned by Tangerine Developments
